Dear Mr. Colby:

Mr. Malof will be out of the city most of the month of August. In his behalf, I would like to thank you for your letter of July 28, confirming the new series of luncheon meetings with our Conferences for Business Executives for 1973-74. Your letter will be brought to his attention upon his return to the office.

Sincerely,

Dear Peter:

We shall be happy to participate in the new series of Conferences for Business Executives for the 1973-74 season as you requested in your letter of 19 June 1973. The dates you propose will be fine. We plan to continue with the format of the noon luncheon meeting followed by an informal discussion on Intelligence and National Security.

Thank you for your comments on the effectiveness of these Friday afternoon sessions at the Agency. My colleagues and I are equally appreciative for the opportunity to discuss the Central Intelligence Agency with mature and responsible groups, such as your Conferences for Business Executives.

Sincerely,

15/

W. E. Colby

Mr. William E. Colby
Acting Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bill:

The effectiveness of the luncheon and afternoon sessions at Langley, as part of our conferences for business executives on government, encourages us to hope that these can be continued in the coming year.

For the coming season, we have again scheduled ten such conferences, from late October 1973 through June 1974. So as to give your staff time to check on the availability of space, here are the Friday dates of each conference week:

November 2, 1973
December 7, 1973
January 18, 1974
February 8, 1974
March 1, 1974

March 29, 1974
April 26, 1974
May 17, 1974
June 7, 1974
June 28, 1974

The Agency's continued cooperation in these programs will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Peter Malof
Coordinator of Business Programs
